(Name of Club) Joins AAF Western Region To Honor Media Outlets in (Name of Your City) and Throughout the West

(Date) - (Name of Your Club) will be joining the American Advertising Federation Western Region in honoring local media, advertising companies and individuals from throughout the Western United States in the Best of the West Media Awards, which will honor service to local communities throughout the West. Community service and the benefits to those whom the media serve comprise the major qualifications for Best of the West Media Awards. Media and Advertising Outlets based in our area will compete against those from throughout the West. Sub-categories for many awards will ensure that outlets in our market will compete with those from markets of similar sizes.

The goal of these awards are not to necessarily honor those with the highest ratings, circulation or creative achievements, but to honor those who do the best at serving their local communities and being good members of the community.

Nominations are now open, with a nomination deadline of October 8. Anyone can nominate their favorite local media outlets or media employees, and members of the media can nominate their company, those they work with or even themselves. The entry portal is at www.AAFWesternRegion.org and can also be found at the (name of club) website: (web address for club information)
